Research Papers:

Research Papers are to be written and developed in consultation with the professor and will be graded according to a rubric (see below). The question for each Research Paper is:

How and in what ways did [?] both reflect and influence their time?

You need to identify a significant historical British figure whose work or actions impacted their time. It is your choice who to write about. THIS IS NOT A BIOGRAPHY. Your focus is on answering the question. Your choice of historical figure provides you with a subject and an era to enable you to answer the question. Guidance on writing a Research Paper will be provided as part of the Research and Writing Workshop at the start of the Semester and in individual tutorials (by appointment during office hours). Students are recommended to submit an outline or draft of their paper, together with an annotated bibliography. Students will receive comments on their outline or draft. Research Paper 1 will be graded and returned with comments in good time to allow students to take account of the comments prior to submitting Research Paper 2.

Students are required to upload one of their Research Papers onto Live-Text.

Research Paper Grading Rubric

Suggested Criteria	Excellent	Good B	Fair C	Poor D	Fail F
1. Thesis/line of argument	Original, compelling argument sustained throughout the paper.	Effective argument sustained throughout the paper.	Argument made but not sustained throughout the paper.	Poor or patchy argument (i.e. limited engagement with key issues).	Very ineffective argument showing no awareness of important issues.
 2. Research a) use of appropriate primary & secondary sources b) correct use of citations & bibliographical references 	Excellent research: integration of a wide range of primary & secondary sources, cited correctly.	Thorough research: use of a good range of primary & secondary sources. Minor errors in referencing.	Fair research (but some use of inappropriate / non- academic sources). Some errors in referencing. Poorly written & ineffectively structured essays: illogical organisation of material, poor grammatical structures & use of colloquialisms).	Very poorly written or very brief answers with extensive grammatical, organisational & presentational errors.

Outline. Students are encouraged to submit an outline of their paper for comment. Your outline should consist of:

Title/Question: If you are developing your own question this should be concise and descriptive.
Thesis statement: This should be relatively extensive and certainly more than a single sentence.
Research questions: These should help you to create a framework for completing your paper within the time available.
Methods/Work Plan: This should show how you plan to tackle your research questions.
Bibliography: Annotated.

Alternatively, you can submit a draft of your paper for comment.

Late submission of papers will result in the grade assigned dropping one grade in the week of submission, and a further grade for each week thereafter, e.g. A- to B+

Open Book Examination

Students will be presented with a question in their penultimate class session, answers to be submitted on the last day of the class. This assessment is designed to give students the opportunity and flexibility to bring together their class notes with their 'field notes', their reflections on their experiences (what they have seen, heard, and read) while living in the UK. It is permissible to include photographs and images to support a response to the question posed.

Withdrawal and Attendance policies:

Harlaxton College expects regular class attendance by all students. Students are considered sufficiently mature to appreciate the necessity of regular and punctual attendance, to accept this personal responsibility and to accept the consequences of failure to attend. When absences occur due to emergency or medical reasons, students are expected to notify their instructors of the absence prior to class or to seek the assistance of the College nurse or a member of the Student Experience Team for help in notifying instructors.

Instructors have the authority to grant excused absences for medical, psychological, or personal reasons upon review of appropriate documentation and professional recommendation supporting such a request. In the event of long-term illness, reasonable accommodations will be made to allow a student to complete a course. In these cases, the Dean will need to approve the long term nature of the accommodation.

The Dean of Harlaxton College has the authority to grant excused absences for medical, psychological, or personal reasons.

Each instructor is expected to maintain an attendance policy in keeping with the nature of the Harlaxton program and may consider it in evaluating performance in their courses.

Policy Governing Unexcused Absences:

Harlaxton College operates an attendance policy that is binding on all faculty and students. The number of unexcused absences that are allowed before incurring a penalty is related to the number of times a class meets each week. For courses which meet three times a week, students are allowed a maximum of three unexcused absences during the semester without attracting penalty points. For courses meeting twice a week two such absences are permitted, and for courses meeting once a week a single absence is allowed. Additional unexcused absences will attract a grade penalty.

The grade penalty will be a third-letter grade (A- to B+) for each additional absence.

Policy Governing Excused Absences.

- Excused absences are not given to facilitate student travel independent of College-sponsored travel.
- Students may be permitted to miss class because of participation in academic field trips.
- Instructors must co-ordinate and confirm academic fieldtrips with the Dean, prior to the commencement of the Semester to ensure their inclusion in the Semester timetable.
- Where authorization for an academic fieldtrip is requested after the commencement of the semester, the request must be submitted to the Dean.

The following information is required:

• Purpose and brief description of the official Harlaxton event or academic fieldtrip.

• Dates, location, and times (as applicable).

• Alphabetical list of students involved [Last Name/First Name] along with their student identification number.

If approval is granted:

• Instructors affected will be notified at least one week prior to the class period during which absence is anticipated, or as soon as possible.

• Missed class time due to student participation is to be considered an excused absence.

• The grade of a student may not be lowered in any class due to excused absences.

• It is the student's responsibility - to take the initiative by consulting with their instructors before the absence occurs, and - to do what is required by the instructor to make up all missed assignments and/or examinations.

• Instructors are required to assist students in these occasional situations of excused absences.

Honor Code:

All students at the University of Evansville agree to the University honor code: I will neither give nor receive unauthorized aid, nor will I tolerate an environment that condones the use of unauthorized aid.

AI may be used only with prior permission or direction by the instructor.

• All work submitted in this course must be your own.

• The use of generative AI composition tools, such as those offered by ChatGPT, Google Bard etc. is prohibited in this course except for specific assignments and subject to the instructor's guidelines.

• Work generated by such tools without proper attribution is plagiarism and, thereby, a breach of the University's Plagiarism and Academic Honesty policy.

Disability Policy:

It is the policy and practice of the University of Evansville to make reasonable accommodations for students with properly documented disabilities. Students should contact Disability Services within the Office of Counseling Services by calling 812-488-2663 to seek services or accommodations for disabilities. Written notification to faculty from Disability Services is required for academic accommodations.

The University of Evansville Disability Services office will share the request for academic accommodations with the Academic Support team at Harlaxton College. Staff members at Harlaxton will meet individually with students to discuss needs and provide additional information related to examinations or other assessments.

Students from partner institutions should provide the appropriate letter of accommodation from their institution to the Academic Support team at Harlaxton College.

Non-Discrimination Statement

The University of Evansville expects all members of its community to treat each other with respect and civility. Harassing behaviors directed towards any member of our community will not be tolerated. As part of its commitment to non-discrimination, the University specifically prohibits harassment based on any other characteristics set forth in its nondiscrimination statement as follows: including race, color, gender, gender identity and expression, sexual orientation, creed or religion, national origin, age, disability, veteran status and all federally protected groups/classes. Any form of harassment undermines the mission of the University and negatively impacts the University community as a whole.

Prohibited Conduct and Confidentiality

The University of Evansville is committed to fostering an atmosphere free from harassment and discrimination. This commitment includes identifying problems that may lead to sexual harassment and misconduct, as well as other forms of harassment and discrimination, by creating an atmosphere in which the entire University community is sensitive to preventing prohibited conduct. Additionally, the University is committed to providing support and resources to individuals who have experienced prohibited conduct. This commitment includes effectively responding when a student, visitor, guest or program participant is the victim of prohibited conduct.

All campus employees, students, and guests are required to abide by the Title IX and Other Sexual Harassment and Misconduct Policy, the Harassment and Discrimination Policy, and the Consensual Sexual or Romantic Relationships Between Employees and Students Policy. Violation of these policies could result in disciplinary action, up to and including expulsion for students and termination for employees.

Faculty members at the University of Evansville are considered "Responsible Employees" under the applicable federal guidelines and the University's policies. This means that I am unable to offer you confidentiality if you report any incidence of prohibited conduct to me as defined by Title IX statute.
