Grading Information:

Projects: There are three projects for the course, covering different aspects of familial relationships: Reflections on Relationships, Commitment, and Families. A detailed handout with format and content guidelines for each project will be given in the first week of class. Each project is worth 60 points and will be due at the start of class on the due date. Due dates are listed in the course outline. These papers are worth 180 points total.

Annotated Readings in Perusall: There are 13 sets of readings given in this course to supplement the themes discussed in class. You will be annotating these readings through Perusall. Each reading annotation is worth 10 points and is due by the start of class on its assigned date. All due dates are listed in the course outline and late reading annotations will not be accepted. Your lowest reading annotation score will be dropped for your final grade. These annotations are worth 120 points total.

Examinations: There are three exams given in this course, each of which is worth 100 points. The dates of each exam are provided on the course outline. These exams are worth 300 points total. Late exams will be given without penalty ONLY IF prior arrangements have been made with the instructor or in the event of a documented emergency. If prior arrangements are not made, a make-up test will be given. These tests are similar to, although not necessarily identical to, the regular exam. Make-up exams will be scheduled by appointment only for times other than the regular class period. If you miss a test, you will lose 10 points from the test score per day (including the day of the test) that the test is not taken. For example, if you take the test after our class time on the day of the test, you will lose 10 points; the day after the scheduled exam day, you will lose 20 points, etc. If the missed test is not taken before the next test, the missed test will automatically receive a grade of zero. Students with tests receiving a score less than 70% (70 out of 100) will meet with me during office hours or by appointment to discuss ways of improving future test scores.

Grading:

Reading Annotations – 12 x 10 points each	120 points
Projects – 3 x 60 points each	180 points
Exams – 3 x 100 points each	300 points
Total Possible Points	600 points

	A	=	600 - 537
B+	=	536 - 525		B	= 524 - 477
C+	=	476 - 465		C	= 464 - 417
D+	=	416 - 405		D	= 404 - 357
	F	=	356 or less

Extra Credit, Incompletes, and Withdrawal

There will be no opportunities for extra credit, regardless of your current grade. Please study accordingly to achieve the grade you desire. Incompletes will not be given except under extraordinary circumstances. It is the responsibility of the student to be aware of the final date to withdraw from the course and still receive a “W” on the transcript. This date is readily available on the University of Evansville academic calendar.

Withdrawal and Attendance Policies:

Harlaxton College expects regular class attendance by all students. Students are considered sufficiently mature to appreciate the necessity of regular and punctual attendance, to accept this personal responsibility and to accept the consequences of failure to attend. When absences occur due to emergency or medical reasons, students are expected to notify their instructors of the absence prior to class or to seek the assistance of the College nurse or a member of the Student Experience Team for help in notifying instructors.

Instructors have the authority to grant excused absences for medical, psychological, or personal reasons upon review of appropriate documentation and professional recommendation supporting such a request. In the event of long-term illness, reasonable accommodations will be made to allow a student to complete a course. In these cases, the Dean will need to approve the long term nature of the accommodation. The Dean of Harlaxton College has the authority to grant excused absences for medical, psychological, or personal reasons.

Each instructor is expected to maintain an attendance policy in keeping with the nature of the Harlaxton program and may consider it in evaluating performance in their courses.

Policy Governing Unexcused Absences:

Harlaxton College operates an attendance policy that is binding on all faculty and students. The number of unexcused absences that are allowed before incurring a penalty is related to the number of times a class meets each week. For courses meeting twice a week two such absences are permitted. Additional unexcused absences will attract a grade penalty of a full-letter grade deduction (A to B).

Policy Governing Excused Absences.

- Excused absences are not given to facilitate student travel independent of College-sponsored travel.
- Students may be permitted to miss class because of participation in academic field trips.
- Instructors must co-ordinate and confirm academic fieldtrips with the Dean, prior to the commencement of the Semester to ensure their inclusion in the Semester timetable.
- Where authorization for an academic fieldtrip is requested after the commencement of the semester, the request must be submitted to the Dean.

If approval is granted:

- Instructors affected will be notified at least one week prior to the class period during which absence is anticipated, or as soon as possible.
- Missed class time due to student participation is to be considered an excused absence.
- The grade of a student may not be lowered in any class due to excused absences.
- It is the student's responsibility - to take the initiative by consulting with their instructors before the absence occurs, and - to do what is required by the instructor to make up all missed assignments and/or examinations.
- Instructors are required to assist students in these occasional situations of excused absences.

Readings and Course Content:

Readings are approximately 30-40 pages; the average amount of time a college student needs to spend on reading assignments of this length for true understanding is 3-4 hours per reading. You may find it helpful to make an outline, write down key concepts and definitions, and flag or highlight any important theories, people, or themes. The content needed for discussions will all come from these readings, so it is in your best interest to know them well and to keep up-to-date on the reading assignments.

Disability Policy:

It is the policy and practice of the University of Evansville to make reasonable accommodations for students with properly documented disabilities. Students should contact Disability Services within the Office of Counseling Services by calling 812-488-2663 to seek services or accommodations for disabilities. Written notification to faculty from Disability Services is required for academic accommodations.

The University of Evansville Disability Services office will share the request for academic accommodations with the Academic Support team at Harlaxton College. Staff members at Harlaxton will meet individually with students to discuss needs and provide additional information related to examinations or other assessments. Students from partner institutions should provide the appropriate letter of accommodation from their institution to the Academic Support team at Harlaxton College.

Honor Code:

Academic dishonesty of any sort will not be tolerated. This includes: working together on reading response papers, projects, or exams; copying another's work on exams or papers; having another student/person take your exam, write your papers/projects/responses; submitting your work that previously has been submitted for another course; plagiarism (please see the handout on our course Blackboard site "Avoiding Plagiarism" for a more detailed description of defining and avoiding plagiarism); and all other forms of cheating. If you are unsure, ask me first. Per our Academic Policies and Procedures: "Ignorance is not accepted as a valid excuse for a violation of the Academic Honor Code."

Artificial intelligence (AI) language models, such as ChatGPT, and online assignment help tools, such as Chegg®, are examples of online learning support platforms; they cannot be used for course assignments. The following actions are prohibited in this course:

- Submitting all or any part of an assignment statement to any online learning support platform;
- Incorporating any part of an AI generated response in an assignment;
- Using AI to brainstorm, formulate arguments, or template ideas for assignments;
- Using AI to summarize or contextualize source materials;
- Submitting your own work for this class to an online learning support platform for iteration or improvement.

Work generated by such tools without proper attribution is plagiarism and, thereby, a breach of the University's Plagiarism and Academic Honesty policy.

As a condition of taking this course, all papers will be subject to submission for textual similarity and AI content review to Turnitin.com. All submitted papers will be included as source documents in the Turnitin.com reference database. Any student caught violating the Academic Honor Code in any way will be given a zero on that assignment, reflection, or exam and their actions will be reported to their Advisor(s) and the Dean of Students at Harlaxton and your home campus. Please be aware: there are several resources for help on assignments, papers, and studying for exams, including coming to office hours and talking to me! Do not fail an assignment or class because you did not utilize these resources. As in all University of Evansville courses, we will abide by, and commit to, the Academic Honor Code.

I understand that any work which I submit for course credit will imply that I have adhered to this Academic Honor Code: "I will neither give nor receive unauthorized aid nor will I tolerate an environment which condones the use of unauthorized aid."
